Long Vowel /oa/ /oe/ /ow/

There was a silly goat who liked to play jokes. He lived on a boat that could not float. The boat was in a moat held by some rope. The silly goat and his boat had nowhere to go!

The goat ate soap up his nose. He showed everyone he could blow bubbles. His nose was soaked and full of soap. What a silly goat.

The goat was lazy and liked to groan. He did not like to roam. He liked to sit next to the window in his boat home and moan moan moan.

The silly goat had no friends. The toad and the crow did not like the goat. The goat would throw snowballs at them. Better tiptoe past the goat, so you don't get hit by snowballs!
