

Primary Grammar: Can, Cannot

'Can' is a modal verb that tells us what abilities we have. 'Cannot' is the negative form of 'can'. We can use 'can' and 'cannot' to form questions.

- Can you read?

B: Yes, I can read.

C: No, I cannot read.

Complete and read the questions.

1. _____ you write?

2. _____ he sing?

3. _____ she play?

4. _____ they jump?

5. _____ we eat?

6. _____ it fetch?

Primary Grammar: Can, Cannot

Complete the answer.

1. Can you kick a ball?

Yes, I _____ kick a ball.

2. Can you catch a ball?

Yes, I _____ catch a ball.

3. Can you throw a ball?

Yes, I _____ throw a ball.

4. Can you eat a ball?

No, I _____ eat a ball.

5. Can you cook a ball?

No, I _____ cook a ball.

Primary Grammar: Can, Cannot

Answer the question using 'can' or 'cannot'.

1. Can you jump high?

2. Can you swim?

3. Can you run fast?

4. Can you touch the sky?

5. Can you fly?

Primary Grammar: Can, Cannot

Write a question based on the answer.

1. Can you _____

Yes, I can play basketball.

2. Can you _____

No, I cannot drive a car.

3. Can you _____

Yes, I can ride a bike.

4. Can you _____

No, I cannot swim fast.

5. Can you _____

Yes, I can draw a picture.

Primary Grammar: Can, Cannot

Write 5 questions using 'can'. Record another person's answer.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

