

Reading and Writing: Fruits

I am an apple. I can be red or green. I grow on trees. I am a hard fruit. I have a core that you cannot eat.

Answer the questions.

What fruit are we talking about?

What color can the fruit be?

Where does the fruit grow?

What kind of fruit is it?

What does the fruit have?

Reading and Writing: Fruits

I am a banana. I am yellow. I grow on trees. I am a hard fruit. I have a skin that you peel.

Answer the questions.

What fruit are we talking about?

What color can the fruit be?

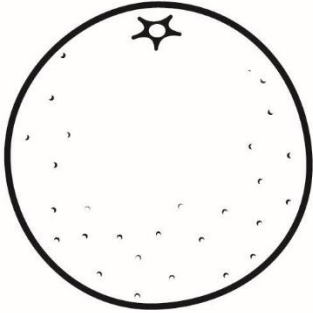

Where does the fruit grow?

What kind of fruit is it?

What does the fruit have?

Reading and Writing: Fruits

I am an orange. I am orange. I grow on trees. I am a hard fruit. I have a skin that you peel. I have segments inside.

Answer the questions.

What fruit are we talking about?

What color can the fruit be?

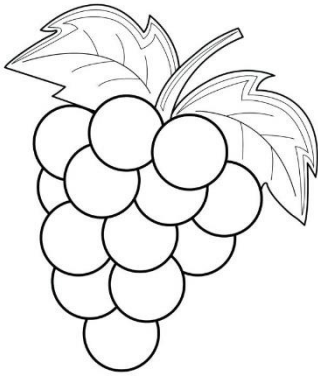

Where does the fruit grow?

What kind of fruit is it?

What does the fruit have?

Reading and Writing: Fruits

We are grapes. We can be red, green or purple. I grow on vines. I am a soft fruit. I am connected to a cluster.

Answer the questions.

What fruit are we talking about?

What color can the fruit be?

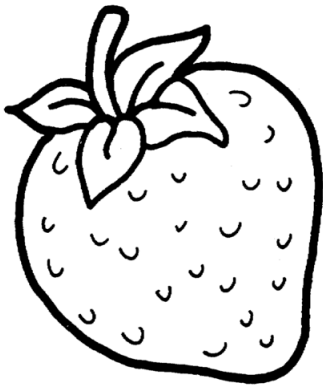

Where does the fruit grow?

What kind of fruit is it?

What does the fruit have?

Reading and Writing: Fruits

I am a strawberry. I am red. I grow on runners. I am a soft fruit. I have many seeds on the outside.

Answer the questions.

What fruit are we talking about?

What color can the fruit be?

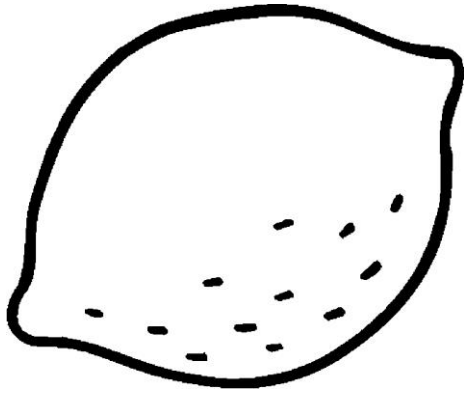

Where does the fruit grow?

What kind of fruit is it?

What does the fruit have?

Reading and Writing: Fruits

I am a lemon. I am yellow. I grow on trees. I am a hard fruit. I have a sour taste.

Answer the questions.

What fruit are we talking about?

What color can the fruit be?

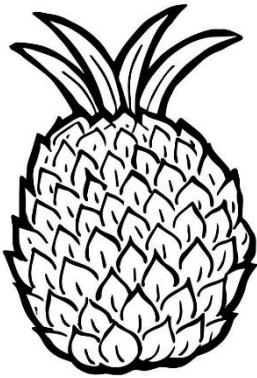

Where does the fruit grow?

What kind of fruit is it?

What does the fruit have?

Reading and Writing: Fruits

I am a pineapple. I am yellow. I grow on trees. I am a hard fruit. I have a spiky skin and leaves growing at the top.

Answer the questions.

What fruit are we talking about?

What color can the fruit be?

Where does the fruit grow?

What kind of fruit is it?

What does the fruit have?

Reading and Writing: Fruits

I am a mango. I can be yellow or orange. I grow on trees. I am a hard fruit. I have a big seed inside of me.

Answer the questions.

What fruit are we talking about?

What color can the fruit be?

Where does the fruit grow?

What kind of fruit is it?

What does the fruit have?

