

Primary Worksheets: Rainforest

---

Rainforests are warm, wet, and dense forests with lots of life. They are a kind of forest habitat. Many trees and leafy plants can be found in rainforests in warm places around the world.

There are millions of different kinds of plants and animals in rainforests. There are many that haven't even been discovered yet! Animals can be seen flying, jumping, swinging, and gliding in the rainforest.

Primary Worksheets: Rainforest

---

It is highly important to protect our rainforest habitats. There are many creatures who live there. Rainforests produce 20% of the oxygen in the world that we all need to breathe.

Rainforests are different from other forests. They get a lot of rain every year (200cm) that makes the environment damp and humid. Rainforests habitats are located around the equator of the world.

Primary Worksheets: Rainforest

---

We get many materials and food from rainforests. Coffee, chocolate, rubber, wood are few things we can get from rainforests.

The plants in the rainforest can be used to be make medicine. Around 25% of the medicine we use comes from the rainforest!

Scientists think that over half of the plant and animal species in the whole world live in rainforest habitats!

Primary Worksheets: Rainforest

---

Answer the questions.

What is a rainforest?

---

---

What can we find in the rainforest?

---

---

Why is the rainforest important?

---

---

Primary Worksheets: Rainforest

---

Answer the questions.

What can we get from the rainforest?

---

---

What do plants do in the rainforest?

---

---

What is the environment like?

---

---

