

Primary Grammar: Capitalization

We always capitalize proper nouns (names of specific things) in English. There are many other rules when it comes to capitalization.

We need to capitalize the first letter of every sentence.

- We need to go to school.
- They are going to work.

Also, the names and titles of people.

- This is Mr. Greg.
- Where is Miss Jane?
- Spiderman and Superman are heroes.

Days, months, and holidays.

- Today is Monday.
- Yesterday was Sunday.
- My birthday is in April.
- The best holiday is Christmas.

Primary Grammar: Capitalization

Rewrite the paragraph. Use capitalization.

i went to school today. it was so much fun to see mr greg again! on tuesday i will get my halloween costume ready for saturday.

Primary Grammar: Capitalization

Rewrite the paragraph. Use capitalization.

my favourite holiday is christmas. it is on the 25th of december. every year, santa claus gives me many presents and puts them under the christmas tree.

