Continuous tense is used for actions that are happening now or for an action that is unfinished. To change a verb into continuous form, we need to add 'ing'.

For verbs ending in 'e', we remove it and then add 'ing'.

To indicate the tense, we must look at the verb 'to be'.

Present	Past	Future
am/is/are	was/were	will be

- He is kicking the ball.
- They were writing at school.
- We will be cooking in the kitchen.

Change the verbs into continuous form and write in present continuous tense. Remember am/is/are.

	eat drive	play talk	throw walk
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.

Change the verbs into continuous form and write in past continuous tense. Remember was/were.

	feed dance	draw bake	paint cook
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
-

Change the verbs into continuous form and write in future continuous tense. Remember 'will be'.

	cut make	jump change	clean wash
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.	-

