

Kindergarten Reading: Playing

We are playing on the see-saw!

We can go up and down.

We need a partner to play.

We can use our legs to push up.

Only two kids can play.

Kindergarten Reading: Playing

We are playing in the sandpit!

We can build castles.

We can use buckets and spades.

There is room for many kids.

It can be messy.

Kindergarten Reading: Playing

We are playing twister!

We need to use our hands and feet.

There are four different shapes.

There is room for many kids.

It can be hard.

Kindergarten Reading: Playing

We are playing jump rope!

We need to jump over the rope.

Two kids need to hold the rope.

The rope will swing round and round.

There is room for many kids.

Kindergarten Reading: Playing

We are playing tug of war!

We need to use our hands.

We must pull as hard as we can.

It is good to be strong.

There is room for many kids.

Kindergarten Reading: Playing

We are playing on the balance beam!

We need to stay on the beam.

We can use our hands to balance.

We cannot fall down.

There is room for many kids.

